Estate and Gift Taxes

Estates. The federal estate tax exemption in 2019 is about $11,400,000. With appropriate tax filings and tax elections, married couples may secure a $22,800,000 exemption regardless of which spouse dies first or how the couple owns their property (assuming that they both die in 2019). Amounts in excess of the exemption are taxed at a 40% rate.

Gifts. The lifetime federal gift tax exemption in 2019 is about $11,400,000. Amounts transferred in excess of the exemption are taxed at 40%.

For 2019, the annual exclusion from the gift tax is $15,000. A gift no larger than $15,000 may be given to each of as many people as you wish without incurring gift tax or using up your lifetime federal gift tax exclusion. To qualify for the annual exclusion, the gift must be of a "present interest," meaning that the person receiving the gift must have the immediate right to use and enjoy the gift, without strings attached. Couples may "split" their gifts to secure a $30,000 annual exclusion.

College Savings Incentives

Section 529 plans. No federal tax need be paid on the income earned on amounts accumulated in a state-sponsored Section 529 plan. When withdrawals are made and used for qualified education expenses (college or up to $10,000 of elementary or secondary school expenses), they won't be taxed either.

Coverdell Education Savings Accounts (CESAs). You can contribute up to $2,000 a year per child to a CESA. Earnings grow tax free as long as withdrawals are used for qualified education expenses. Eligibility to contribute the full amount phases out between a modified adjusted gross income (MAGI) of $95,000 and $110,000 (singles); between $190,000 and $220,000 (marrieds filing jointly).

American Opportunity Tax Credit. The maximum American Opportunity Tax Credit is 100% of the first $2,000 and 25% for the next $2,000 of qualified tuition and related expenses. The credit phases out at MAGI of $160,000 for marrieds filing jointly ($80,000 for singles).

Lifetime Learning Credit. The maximum Lifetime Learning Credit is $2,000, with the credit phasing out at modified adjusted gross income of $116,000 for marrieds filing jointly ($58,000 for singles).

U.S. Savings Bonds income exclusion. For 2019 the income from certain U.S. Savings Bonds used to pay qualified higher education expenses may be excluded from tax. Eligibility for the exclusion phases out from $121,600 to $151,600 for marrieds filing jointly, $81,100 and $96,100 for all other returns.

Interest deduction for education loans. A tax deduction is available for up to $2,500 in qualified education loan interest. Eligibility for the deduction phases out between MAGI of more than $70,000 and $85,000 (singles); between $140,000 and $170,000 (marrieds filing jointly).

Other Credits and Deductions

Long-term care insurance premiums. In some instances, portions of the premiums paid for qualified long-term care insurance may be tax deductible. For 2019 they are: $420 for those who are age 40 or under at the end of the tax year; $790, if older than 40 but not older than 50; $1,580, older than 50 but not older than 60; $4,220, older than 60 but not older than 70; $5,270, older than 70.

Adoption credit. You may be able to take a tax credit of up to $14,080 for qualifying expenses paid to adopt an eligible child. Phaseout begins at modified adjusted gross income of $211,160, and is phased out completely at $251,160.

ABLE Accounts. Beginning in 2015, Congress authorized ABLE Accounts for disabled persons. "ABLE" is the acronym for "Achieving a Better Life Experience." Annual contributions are permitted up to the gift tax annual exclusion amount, $15,000 in 2019. Additional contributions are permitted in some circumstances. Earnings of ABLE Accounts are tax free, as are distributions for qualified disability expenses, including education, housing, transportation, and employment training, among others. ABLE Account balances won't be counted in determining eligibility for government programs. At the death of the beneficiary, the government may make a claim on the ABLE Account for the amount of its expenses.
